(54) LAMINATE DISCERNIBLE BETWEEN TRUTH AND FALSEHOOD

(57)Abstract:

PROBLEM TO BE SOLVED: To provide a laminate discernible between truth and falsehood which is applicable to a valuable print such as a passage ticket, a passport, and a card having necessity for preventing forgery, copying, and manipulation.

SOLUTION: In the laminate (5) discernible between truth and falsehood, a first layer (1) in which an uneven pattern (A) with an ink protrusion is printed on a base material by using at least one of an ink having the same color with that of the base material, an ink having a hue similar to that of the base material, and a transparent ink, a second layer (4) comprising an adhesive, and a third layer (2) in which a full line pattern or a stitch pattern (3) is printed on a light transmitting base material are laminated in turn. A surface on which the full line pattern or the stitch pattern (3) of the third layer (2) is printed is bonded by the second layer (4) and laminated on the first layer (1).
